Maurice W. Sayeh

Parsons McEntire McCleary PLLC
Associate

Maurice is a versatile litigator with broad experience. This includes commercial disputes, life sciences and healthcare compliance investigations, product liability and mass tort litigation, antitrust matters, white collar investigations and defense, and appellate matters. Maurice has practiced before multiple federal and state courts around the country and has experience representing clients in "bet-the-company" litigation and trials.

Maurice served as a law clerk to the Honorable James B. Clark, III, United States District Court, District of New Jersey. He then practiced with a major national firm in New York City. He recently returned to his home state of Texas and joined our firm.
